

WHO KILLED ELOÁ?

tues.7.

on violence

our perception of violence is dictated by the elite.

the lives of poor women on the news.

The fleshsold in plastic boxes.

The drones and suicide bombers.

The domination of the female body.

The domination of the poor,

by the church, the government and the school as extension of this power.

We justify this twisted view

on violence we need it to preserve our rank.

Typewriter ink ribbon trick:

INK RIBBON

Here is a trick to bring your old ink ribbon back to life using only a box and bike spray oil (WD-40).

Is your typewriter out of ink?

You don't know where to buy new wribbons or the ones you find are too expensive?

Unroll all the ribbon, place it spread out in the cardboard box. Spray it evenly with WD-40 and let it sit for about 10 minutes. Then roll it back while gently taking the excess oil off with a cloth. And that-s it. Put it back in the typewriter and see-this text was written with such revived ribbon.

Why do the lives of white people matter more?

If you don't acknowledge the fact that we live in a white supremacist patriarchal society, it's probably because you are benefitting from it.

People who are not western/white experience white capitalist patriarchy but they might lack the means to process or find the language to express their experience.

One of the reasons why it's difficult for white/western people to acknowledge white capitalist patriarchy is because they are born into a world that teaches them that Their experience, Their perspective is The Norm.
The Universal Truth. When The Other, the marginalized, people of color perceive the world differently it's because there is something wrong with them. They need to learn from the west how to perceive things properly.

Our minds have been colonized and we need to come together and talk. This is the way we will realize that these feelings of alienation, anxiety are not personal issues: they are not psychological. They are social, and political. You are not the only one, and there are strong political and social structures that lead to this severe sense of alienation and anxiety.

"The system's victims are blamed for the suffering the system causes" (paraphrased from the zine: WE ARE ALL VERY ANXIOUS)
